This rivalry has slowly faded into a dualism which is still prominent in Canada. This dualism can be found in both Canada s population and culture as well as in the fact that Canada has two official languages, French and English. This bilingualism of Canada will be the subject of this paper. I will not focus on the development of English in Canada in terms of a linguistic analysis though but will analyze the causes for this bilingualism instead. Furthermore I am going to analyze how both the federal government of Canada and the provincial government of Quebec the only province that has a French speaking majority in the Canadian federation have dealt with the existence of two major language groups.In a...
