Manav and Nidhi, both college students, have been together for two years when Manav decides it is time to take their relationship a step further. While attempting to orchestrate what he hopes is a future romantic tryst, Manav is unaware that events are about to transpire that will change his life forever. While Manav and Nidhi are attending a wedding celebration in a hotel, explosions rock the building, sending Manav and Nidhi for cover inside a room. Moments later after a masked gunman breaks down their door, the terrified couple is herded with more than one hundred others to another location where Manav soon realizes their captors are terrorists with an evil plan. As chaos erupts around them, something changes inside Manav. After he and Nidhi finally escape, it is only then, with his true love's help, that he begins a quest for the truth about himself and the world around him. In this compelling story, a man embarks on a journey of self-discovery where he faces seemingly insurmountable challenges while seeking the answer to life's most complex question: Who Am I?.
