D. , Editor. Vol. 2, June 5, 1886, to November 27. 1886. 4to, pp. 416. New York: Pliillips and Hunt. The second volume (bound) of Our Youth continues to justify all the commendations that we gave to its predecessor six months ago; and some of the betterments we then suggested seem to find place in increasing degrees as the work grows older. We are glad to learn that it is meeting, in its circulation, with a share of the success that it deserves. From the Forecastle to the Cabin. By Captain S. Samuels. Illustrated. 12mo. pp. 308. New York: Harper and Brothers. This is said to be no fiction, but a genuine life-sketch of a remarkable man who actually accomplished the transition indicated in the title. It is quite well written, is full of force and vivacity, and shows...
