Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Shifting Sands The natural roses on the smooth olive cheeks had been deepened by rouge, and the long, large, dark eyes had been rendered starry bright by means of belladonna, while the rich waves of hair, black as night, had been dressed for the great day by the most famous hairdresser in London. Isn't she lovely? What a perfectly glorious fit her frock is, and her train is sewn with real pearls, and cost a little fortune! Jack Milburn paid for the dress, I heard, but of course, I could not say for certain, so don't repeat it, dear, will you? Certainly not, darling. As you say, she's lovely, but she looks a lot older than he, don't you think? Questions and answers such as these were being discreetly whispered behind hymn sheets under cover of the choir's exquisite singing. There was a subdued murmur as the newly-made wife appeared on the arm of her young husband, moving slowly, in careful time to the music, down the long aisle towards the door, through which the blue June day peeped shyly. Love is the divine reason for our existence, the mainspring of our best endeavour, and the measure of supreme reward.
