Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Its every parents worst nightmare: the light and love of a childs presenceextinguished far too soon. For single mother Pat AmesUrie, the life-shattering grief of losing a child struck not once, but twice. First came the attempted suicide of her bright and beautiful teenage daughter Lara, whose traumatic brain injury would leave her suspended between life and death for the next twenty-eight years. Then, just six weeks later, the tragic suicide of her only son. In Born Die Cope Remember, AmesUrie shares the heartrending grief of enduring these traumatic events while paying tribute to the brilliance and love of her daughters life. While taking readers on the emotional journey of recovery, this deeply personal memoir also delves into the spiritual awareness that has helped AmesUrie along the difficult road to healing. Including photos of Lara and poetry from her teenage years, this insightful read takes a candid glimpse inside the mind of an intelligent but troubled teen, damaged by the lack of a positive male presence in her life. The result is a source of inspiration for anyone who has tragically lost a loved oneor is looking to better understand the angst so common in adolescence.
