CRUGER TO MRS. VAN SCHAAACK, HIS SISTER. Bristol, 20th Sept., 1771. My Dear Bess! A letter from you always gives me satisfaction; two doubles my happiness. That by the Ellen and that by Mr. Frank Lewis are those which I now have the great pleasure of seeing before me. 1 was made infinitely happy by the news of your recovery. May the Almighty bless you with a greater share of health for the time to come! I fear your illness has too much affected your animal spirits. Don t give away, Bess. You talk too early of retirement. Believe me, a little society is a cordial to our minds, a sweetner of life. To have a few friends to divert our gloomy thoughts (which are at times the portion of all that are human), to alleviate our cares, to soften our sorrows, to hear our complaints, and assist us in need; oh! it is Heaven upon earth, a sovereign antidote against the ills of life. Friends are to friends as lesser Gods. A true friend, the Scripture says, is as thine own soul. Keep up therefore an acquaintance, my dear. Good women enough are to be found. Life will lie heavy enough on your hands without a little recreation in the society of agreeable friends. Stay at home too much, and you will grow melancholy, which will destroy your health more than poison. A cheerful heart is a...
