It lies about six miles from Frankfort. Mr. Brooks feeds most of his corn to his livestock, consisting of Clydesdale horses, graded cattle and Jersey-red swine. One of the most interesting and important events in the life our subject was his marriage, which occurred in Waterville, this county, Nov. 10, 1881, the bride being Miss Lottie Mullender, who was born near Cuba, N.Y. Mrs. Brooks is the daughter of John and Jeanette (Loveridge) Mullender. who settled at Waterville in the pioneer days. The father was a farmer by occupation and the mother was a well educated lady who taught school before her marriage. Of this union there have been born three children: Norman, Glenn and Jeanette. Mr. Brooks politically is a strong...
